DECLASSIFIED

WEDNESDAY
DECEMBER 30, 1953

I stopped in at lunchtime to pay Neuville my outstanding debt and deeply regretted it was the last time I would have a transaction with the firm.

[redacted] I went over to the Hotel Drouot to look at a bust attributed to Canova of Benjamin Franklin. I did not like it and left no bid on it.

Things have been [redacted] quiet at the office today. Tommy returned this morning from Garmish.
